Mary Powell

Associate, Wilson Strategic

At Wilson Strategic, Mary provides support to public relations, marketing and communications activities for clients, State of Reform content, and the Wilson Strategic office.

Mary joined Wilson Strategic following five years of experience in non-profits managing educational programs. Her responsibilities have included program promotion, recruitment, and grant management. She also developed a marketing and communications plan to streamline processes and better engage with program participants and funders. Previously, Mary has also held positions in banking and telecommunications.
